Seek Youth Missing After H. S. Initiation

POLICE AID IN SEARCH FOR BOY AT 'SACRAMENTO

Thirteen-Year-Old Student Disappears On Night Hazing Is Held.

SCHOOL PROBE IS STARTED

Superintendent Wood Places Responsibility on School Authorities.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—With Benjamin Rice, a 13-year-oid high school student missing since last Saturday and the hazing of three other students at an initiation of the Eunoia Club, a high school fraternity, a veritable storm has broken out in a campaign to eradicate secret societies from the high school system of the state.

City and State educational authorities have combined in an investigation. It was not generally known until today that young Rice, the son of A. M. Rice, president of the Dundee Willen Mills, disappeared on the night of the initiation was held and has not returned.

Developments today were:

The fact that young Rice disappeared Saturday night and has not been heard from since.

Declaration by Charles C. Hughes, city school superintendent, that the local situation will be probed to the bottom and secret organizations ousted.

Statement by Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, placing responsibility directly on Sacramento school authorities and informing them that they must act promptly.

Denial by Superintendent Wood that his son, Wilsie Wood, is involved in the local fraternity ring and demands by him that local school officials prove this charge.

Harold L. Ward, Russell Carpenter and Jack Voth, the three boys alleged to have been subjected to the brutal initiatory rites on a ranch near here last Saturday and Sunday, today refused to implicate their schoolmates, maintaining they have given their oath to keep the ritual a secret. All three were badly injured, and Ward is still confined to his bed.

County Hospital Improvements Are Planned By Board

MARTINEZ, Feb. 5.—Extensive improvements to the grounds surrounding the county hospital here are being planned by the board of supervisors. The roads leading from Alhambra avenue to the hospital property have been graded and macadamized, steps taken for the erection of a dormitory for the nurses and bids are now asked for the construction of a retaining wall around the front of the building.

Plans and specifications for this work were approved by the Supervisors this week and bids will be received on the 3d of March. The estimated cost of the work is $8,900.

A contract was authorized on Monday by the Supervisors with Architect Berry G. McDougall of San Francisco for the preparation of plans for the Memorial Hall to be erected in Pittsburg this spring in honor of Contra Costa boys who fell during the great war. The site for the Pittsburg building has been purchased and as soon as plans are completed work will be started on the structure.

The recently annexed subdivision to the city of El Cerrito was ordered included in voting precinct No. 1 of that place.

Redding—Work started on $1419,000 paving project on 10-mile unit north of city.

THE TEAPOT DOME INVESTIGATION

Injunction Suit To Halt Teapot Oil Dome Operations Is Ordered

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Injunction proceedings to prevent further extraction of oil from the Teapot Dome and Elks Hill reserves will be instituted by the government's special counsel in the oil land lease cases, as soon as President Coolidge signs the Walsh resolution adopted by Congress.

The Senate oil investigating committee met only briefly today, having no plans to probe deeper into the leasing muddle until Thursday, while its accountants continued their study of the books of W. B. Hibbs and company, a Washington banking and brokerage firm, to determine whether any government officials have dealt in the stocks of the Mammoth Oil company, which was organized by Harry F. Sinclair to take over the Teapot Dome lease.

The committee will ask the Senate for a new grant of authority when it reassembles Thursday, and has notified former Secretary Fall, who signed the leases, that his reappearance for questioning as to his financial relations with Sinclair and E. L. Doheny will be deferred until Friday. Prompt action by the Senate readopting of the resolution authorizing the inquiry is expected.

Carl P. Biggerman, assistant cashier of the Chase National Bank of New York, also has been summoned by the committee to present records relating to any remittances that may have been made beween September 1, 1921, and June 1, 1923, by that institution, payable to Sinclair or J. W. Zeveley, his attorney.

Pays $250 Fine On Rum Charge

Police Judge Odell yesterday fined S. Nelson, 3860 Portero avenue, Stege, $250 on pleading guilty of having illegal possession of liquor. Commitment was withheld on $150 on Nelson's petition.

The arrest was made following a raid on a building within 65 feet of Nelson's property, which netted a complete still and a large quantity of jackass brandy and wine.

Nelson pleaded at first that he knew nothing of the manufacture of liquor on his premises, as he had just rented the house. Later, however, he pleaded guilty to the charge of illegally having possession of the liquor.

EAST GRIPPED IN WORST STORM IN MANY YEARS

Wires Are Down To East; Telegraph Service Is Interrupted.

PAPERS USE RADIO SERVICE

Passenger Trains Are Held Up At Various Points Throughout Middle West.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Only the air was in harness today throughout the great Mississippi valley from Minnesota to Texas, held in the grip of the worst blizzard of snow and sleet in 20 years, with trains snowbound and stalled and all lines of communication seriously interrupted.

With railway and commercial telegraph wires down in many states and telephone wires similarly crippled, radio was put to its severest test. News associations, commercial wires and the railroads were using the radio to such an extent as was possible.

Radio broadcasting stations were pressed into service to send news, railway dispatches, commercial messages and reports of all kinds. Where yesterday, when communications first failed under sleet and wind blowing 48 miles an hour, broadcasting was resorted to with some degree of success, telegraphic code over the radio was used today because of unfavorable atmospheric conditions.

The storm was diminishing in force today as it moved eastward, with its center over western Indiana and some colder weather in its wake, but conditions were beginning to clear up in the northwest and northern plains states today.

In the vicinity of Herington, Kan., the Santa Fe railroad had little information on its trains, reporting that its first division poin out of Chicago, Chillicothe, Ill., could not be communicated with.

A number of Chicago and Northwestern railway passenger trains were being held at various stations between Chicago and northern sections of Wisconsin and Michigan, but passengers were being cared for at hotels and in dining cars, the officials said. Only one train was stalled between stations, it was said, a local train being held in the vicinity of Reedsville, Wis., but the passengers had been taken to a hotel.

Schools To Honor Wilson's Memory

At the request of Will C. Wood, state superintendent of schools, all schools in Richmond will hold exercises today in memory of Woodrow Wilson, who is being buried in Washington, D. C. This action was taken as a result of a communication sent to the local school authorities. Like communications have been sent to all public schools throughout the state.

This morning an assembly will be held in the high school, and Clarence Rutledge of the senior class has been chosen to discuss the "Life and Works of Woodrow Wilson." The history department will have charge of the program.

Students of the Junior high will assemble in the auditorium at 1:30 to take part in appropriate ceremonies. A speech will be given on the life and character of the ex-president.

All of the grade schools will have exercises for the former president at some time during the day.

STATE OFFICERS OF SCIOTS ARE SPEAKERS HERE

Waldo Postel and Jesse Whited Deliver Talks at Alpha Lodge Session.

CHARLES PRATT IS PRESENT

Interest Aroused In Instituting of New Pyramid In Richmond.

Waldo Postel, past Pharoah and Jesse Whited, Supreme Pharoah of Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots, were the chief speakers on the program last night which was given before the Alpha lodge of Masons. Postel and Whited are nationally known in the Sciot circles. Both men spoke on the Sciot organization, its ideals, its plans and its accomplishments.

The program was given after the regular meeting of the Alpha Lodge of Masons. Hoit Brown held the chair during the business session. A very large crowd of local Masons and visitors from out of town attended the meeting.

The degree team put one candidate through the third degree of Masonry. It was necessary for Postel and Whited to leave before the program was finished, as they were slated to speak before the Berkeley pyramid of Sciots.

After the program a banquet was served in the lodge rooms for the Alpha members and the visitors. It was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star, who were presented with a large box of candy by the Masons in appreciation of their untiring effort.

Charles H. S. Pratt, past Pharoah and frequently called the father of the Sciots, was another guest of honor at the meeting. Plenty of smokes were ready for all who wished them. The success of the program and banquet was due in a great part to the work of Arthur Clarke, chairman, and Jesse Blake, assistant chairman of arrangements.

Whited, who delivered an excellent talk, is past master of the California lodge No. 1, past patron of the Eastesn Star, past master of the Consistory and a thirty-third degree Mason.

The visit of the supreme officials resulted in increased interest in the Pyramid of Sciots which is to be instituted in Richmond in March.

Father Is Given Custody Of Son

Declaring that the father, in case of the death of the mother, has absolute right to custody of his son, unless he is proven incompetent or unfit, Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie yesterday awarded custody of six-year-old Leroy Kenneth Goble to the boy's father, K. C. Goble, of Richmond. The court decision concluded a fight instituted two weeks ago by Goble through habeas corpus proceedings to secure the boy from his step-father, Sam Butulia, of San Pablo, whom, Goble claimed, refused to surrender the boy. Following the habeas corpus proceedings Goble filed petition for guardianship. The guardianship petition was opposed by Butulia and the hearing was marked by charges and counter-charges of Goble and Butulia as to their respective treatment of the boy and the mother. Butulia married Goble's divorced wife in June, 1923. Mrs. Goble had been granted the custody of the boy on securing a divorce from her husband. Following the death of Mrs. Butulia several months ago Goble made demand for custody of the boy, which, he says, was refused by Butulia. Before making the order for custody Judge McKenzie questioned Goble's present wife on her willingness to accept Goble's son in her home. Mrs. Goble asserted she desired to secure the boy.

Blame Parrot As Cause Of Trio's Arrest

WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 5.—Bitter recriminations are being exchanged by three youthful prisoners in the police station charged with numerous burglaries in this city in the last two months. The bitterness was caused by the failure of one of the boys to kill a parrot in the home of David Hollett at the time the place was robbed.

"I told you to croak that bold," Stanley Minka, the alleged leader, shouted to Joseph Goldie, one of his confederates. "I knew it would talk and tell on us," he shouted.

Local Radio Fans "Listen In" On Novel Experiment

Local radio fans "listened in" on an interesting experiment last night when a program was broadcasted from KPI station at Los Angeles, in the hope that it would be picked up in England and France.

According to Clare Horner, who was one of the interested "audience", the program was first sent from Los Angeles, then picked up by KGO of Oakland and rebroadcasted, the process being repeated by WHB station at Kansas City, and by WHAZ at Troy, N. Y. From the latter station it was expected that little difficulty would be experienced in picking up the concert in London.

The process used is the result of a recent invention which makes it possible for a program broadcasted from one station to be picked up at another and re-broadcasted on a different wave length.

Horner stated that by changing the wave length he was able to hear parts of a song rendered by a Los Angeles singer from not only the Los Angeles station, but the stations at Oakland, Kansas City and New York as well.

Aubrey Wilson Is Speaker At Meet Of Point Masons

Point Lodge of Masons, No. 503, met in regular session last night at the Point Masonic hall. Worshipful Master Louis F. Moore presided. Aubrey Wilson gave the main address of the evening on "Masonry." His talk was divided into three sections, territory, people and law. The lecture was well given and very instructive.

BLOCK ATTEMPT TO HALT NEVADA GAS EXECUTIONS

Petition For Writ of Habeas Corpus Is Denied By Supreme Court.

ASKED UNDER FORMER STATUE

Wife of Prison Official Halts Efforts To Seize Car With Liquid.

CARSON CITY, Nev. Feb. 5.—Petition for a writ of habeas corpus for Gee Jon, sentenced to die by lethal gas here Friday, was denied by the Supreme Court of Nevada this afternoon. The petition was based on an old law which provides that a certain day be fixed for executions, whereas the statute of 1921 directs that the time for executions be fixed within a period of a week.

NEVADA PENITENTIARY, Feb. 5—The hydrocyanic gas purchased by the State of Nevada to inflict the death penalty on two murderers Friday is under lock and key in the penitentiary tonight because of the pluck, endurance and quick wit of Mrs. Tom Pickett, wife of the chief of the prison bureau of identification, who sat at the wheel of an automobile which carried the gas tank 500 miles from Los Angeles when railroad companies refused to handle such a dangerous consignment.

A series of bold attempts to hold up the machine and prevent the execution of Gee Jon and Thomas Russell was revealed here today following the return of Mr. and Mrs. Pickett last night.

The last and most determined effort was made on the highway near Minden, less than 20 miles from here, Mrs. Pickett reported.

As their machine went through Minden they noticed two machines parked at the roadside. Men leaped into the road and told them to halt. Mrs. Pickett stepped on the throttle of her car and sho past them.

Looking around, Pickett saw the men leap into one of the cars and set out in pursuit.

Undaunted, thuogh she knew that the slightest accident might loose the deadly fumes in the tonneau behind and cause the death of herself and husband, Mrs. Pickett increased the speed of her car up to 60 miles per hour.

Still the pursuer gained, until three miles from Carson, realizing that she was about to be overtaken, Mrs. Pickett turned suddenly into the yard of an Indian school.

The pursuing car turned and headed back toward Minden, believing, apparently, according to Mrs. Pickett, that they had been mistaken in their identity of the prison machine.

Governor Appoints Committee To Make Study of Highway System

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 5.—Governor Richardson today announced the appointment of an Advisory Committee to make a study of the state highway system and make recommendations for the next legislature. This committee is appointed under an act of the last legislature and consists of the following members:

J. B. Gill, of San Francisco, former county highway commissioner; J. H. Newman, of Tulare county, former chairman of the board of supervisors; E. E. East, engineer of the Southern California Automobile club; A. E. Loder, engineer of the California State Automobile Assocation; A. H. Breed, state senator of Alameda county; Elmer Bromley, assemblyman of Los Angeles; G. G. Radcliff, chairman of the State Board of Control; Louis Everding, of the State Highway Commission; and R. M. Morton, State Highway Engineer. In appointing this committee the Governor said:

"The people have heretofore voted $73,000,000 for the construction of highways and this amount has been expended or contracted for. By acts of the people and by acts of the legislature the highway system now comprises 6400 miles of highways. Less than 2500 miles of this has been paved, and less than 4000 miles has been graded. The state highway engineer estimates that it will require $200,000,000 to complete the state highway system as it now exists and in accordance with the standards demanded by the present traffic. Hundreds of miles of highways have been voted into the state highway system by legislatures with little thought or consideration as to whether these are necessary vital roads or not. Many of these roads are in fact purely and simply pork barrel roads which should never have been in the highway system. The committee I have appointed will, I hope, have the courage to investigate the problems thoroughly and decide what roads should be in the state highway system and what roads should not be.

"I have appointed a committee of high-class citizens who will serve the state without compensation and whose report should have great weight with the people."

Sickness Costs Americans Over Billion Dollars

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Doctor's bills hospitals, nurses and patent medicines cost the American people in excess of one billion dollars a year. A large part of this huge sum, approximately estimated by research workers, is spent in getting patients well from illnesses which could have been prevented, Dr. Lee K. Frankel, third vice-president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, told a group of New York club women, the other day.

The address was a feature of the General Federation's Thrift Week program. In it, Dr. Frankel applied thrift to health and described preventable sickness as sheer waste. Theoretically, he said, there should be no hospitals. Further, he declared if "men who cost $2,500 each to bring to manhood," took better care of themselves they could attain an average age of 65 and add wealth to the nation.

Instead of maintaining a standing army of 150,000 physicians and surgeons merely to cure disease, he said, their services should be enlisted more than has been the case in the past, in the more peaceful practice of keeping the nation well by preventing illness. The fault of dying rests with the individual himself, it would appear, and not with the doctors called in at the last minute to repair the ravages of a chronic disease which might have been checked in the beginning.

Dr. Frankel's address brought out the fact that the medical fraternity and the leading health authorities are back of a movement to extend the life of the average individual far beyond the ordinary period.

Despite the strides made in stamping out disease and halting the spread of various contagions, it appears that people are still dying a great deal earlier than they should. Those interested see no reason for accepting the average age of 55 when it is entirely possible to live many years longer.

The solution is a business solution, according to Dr. Frankel. Everybody, it seems, has some slight physical impairment which prevents him from being 100 per cent perfect. Why not bring out these little defects in a yearly human inventory? Take stock, say the doctors, just as industry makes an inventory of its machinery.

In other words, overhaul all the flywheels and engines in the human machine. Avoid the accidents and the extra cost of running on low motive power. Place yourself on an efficiency basis.

The soundness of the advice is obvious.

Yearly health examinations are being developed in industry because it has been found to pay. Employers are beginning to value in dollars and cents the waste caused by sickness. For instance, there are approximately 40,000,000 wage earners in the United States. It is estimated that the worker is ill on an average of eight days a year. Suppose he makes $2 a day, a very low estimate. The result is an annual loss of one billion dollars.

From statistics gathered over a period of years, doctors have been able to say that from 40 to 50 per cent of this illness is preventable. Today, they make the flat statement that there is no reason why there should be in any community any case of typhoid fever. There are many other diseases, they contend, which should disappear entirely. Any amount of tuberculosis could be prevented if such patients could be cared for in time, they say.

The Metropolitan, which is co-operating with the National Health council in this health crusade for the prevention of illness by regular medical examination, has asked the General Federation of Women's Clubs to aid in getting the message "across." First, it is hoped to reach the community and to show the advantages to be derived from spending money on the care of the health of its citizens. This is to be followed by instruction in personal hygiene, the main feature of which will be birthday examinations to determine physical defects requiring hygienic correction.

About 70 per cent of the millions disbursed by the Metropolitan, are on account of deaths in the preventable or postponable class, it is reported. The volume of claim payments for this group of diseases indicates the extent of the interest of the life insurance companies in the promotion of public health and other measures directed at the suppression of disease.

Win In Second Attempt To Wed

MARTINEZ, Feb. 5.—The same law that balked Steven D. Allison and Mrs. Christine Ann Berry, of Oakland, from being married here Saturday, permitted them yesterday afternoon to become man and wife.

Taking no chance on losing out again by a minute in a race against time, Allison and Mrs. Berry came here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, secured from Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie a final decree in suit for divorce instituted against Mrs. Berry by her husband, Don E. Berry, of Richmond, and were married by Justice of the Peace Frank Glass.

Saturday Allison and his prospective bride came here shortly before noon. Just before the clock struck 12 Attorney James Hoey presented the final decree to Judge McKenzie for signature while Allison and Mrs. Berry appeared at the county clerk's office for a marriage license.

While the judge was perusing the final decree the town clock struck 12, halting his signature to the order that would have freed Mrs. Berry to become Allison's wife.

Picture Of Gold Days In California Now At Macdonald

"When Law Came to Hades," a thrilling picture of early California days, is the feature at the Macdonald theater today. The story starts in 1849, when there was a mad rush to California. People came from all corners of the earth, by wagon, on horse and on foot, lured onward by the magic cry of gold.

Rock Creek was the mecca of the latest activities, with its shores lined for miles by gold-seekers—with their picks and shovels, pans and cradles, expensive and crude methods of all kinds for culling the precious metal from Mother Earth.

Into this hot bed of activity came John Law (Noah Beery), an itinerant circuit rider, and his son, both inspired by the thought of future wealth; and yet with the determination of "right by might" if necessary in the upholding of law and order.

Close by was the new mining town of "Hades," with a reputation that had won the name, and typical in every respect with its full quota of workers and attendant leeches.

Jim Murphy, the owner of "The Casino" (the only amusement resort in "Hades"), was the secret leader and master mind of a band of feared raiders, whom he domineered through the efforts of "Black John," a notrious villian.

It was with a feeling of pride that old Jesse Jenks, a prospector, confided in Jim Murphy of his strike and of his plan to send out his gold secretly concealed in the springs of a wagon about to leave for Circle City and which was to carry his niece, Mary Jenks, then caring for her dead sister's baby.

The action is rapid, and the climax one that is expected to bring unanimous approval.

Teapot Probe Not Financial Factor

Moody's Weekly Review of Financial Conditions in its current issue, says in part:

"Realizing sales naturally causes occasional reactions in view of the fact that nearly all holders now have profits on their industrial stocks. Typical issues of this class are about 49 points above the floor of 1921, and only a little over 3 points below the ceiling of 1922-1923.

"The tempest in the Teapot Dome does not seem to be a financial factor, although it may foreshadow mud-throwing in the political campaign. With both parties divided upon the political issues of the day, with noisy minorities stirring up class hatreds, and with the acute need of political ammunition on both sides—the situation rather favors mud-throwing.

"A widely held delusion is that we have passed completely through a great bear movement and are now entering into an expansion period comparable to 1922 or 1915-1916. Yet records show that the stock market for nearly two years, has not been down to a genuine bargain level, and that stocks, after experiencing a major reaction last year, have merely enjoyed a major rally which has carried them back into the price areas at which the heavy distribution of 1922-1923 occurred.

"Just at present stocks are a poor barometer of general trade. The contraction in the latter seems to mean accumulation of purchasing power, and to warrant conservatism for the present and confidence in the future."

"Backslider" Is Topic Of Talk Given At Evangelist Meeting

Before a large crowd of Richmond people, who came out to hear him in spite of the rainy weather, John Brown last night took a shot at the backslider. Because he felt that very few other than church people were present at the meeting, Brown was able to cut loose and give the people there a heart-to-heart talk, tried few times since the beginning of the evangelistic meetings.

Speaking of the lightness with which folks take their vows to God, in comparison with the vows which they take in lodge or club, in service to the country, John Brown declared that men habitually broke God's vows without compunction. "There is much in the appeal and lure of today," said Brown, that we are in danger of being mired down by losing sight of the greater things of tomorrow."

The love of gold and earthly possessions, love of pleasure and love of things of the flesh were cited as the three most dangerous enemies of people in the church.

After extending a call to those who felt they were thinking too much of today and the things of today, the Evangelist extended an invitation to those who wanted to change to come to the inquiry room. Many responded.

Loren Jones, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jones, sang in his usual beautiful manner.

The program for today by the John Brown party will start in the morning at 10 a. m. with the cottage prayer meetings and a meeting for business and professional men in the office of Isaac Lester, on Tenth street. At noon Mr. and Mrs. Jones will conduct a shop meeting at the Certainteed Products company. At 2:30 p. m. Mr. Brown will bring the second of a series of messages on "The Fruits of the Spirit." At 7 p. m. tonight there will be a special prayer service for young people, and at 7:30 the usual evening services will begin. The boys members of the Pioneer Notchers clubs of the city will march to the tabernacle in a body and the employees of the Certainteed Products cimpany will also have a delegatiin present at the meeting.

Tells Furniture Dealers Value Of Advertising

Newspaper advertising is the most profitable medium for retail furniture dealers, because it is the most dependable, most easily employed and reaches the greatest number of possible patrons at the least cost, it was declared yesterday by A. D. Smith, of Los Angeles, a delegate to the 1924 Furniture Dealers' convention, speaking at the Palace Hotel luncheon.

"Consider your advertising as the most important factor in all your business," he counselled the dealers. He added:

"Newspaper advertising is worthy of your best thought, your most earnest effort; a hidden power of incalcuable possibilities which, if given a reasonable chance, will prove a veritable gold mine to you.

"The fundamental upon which, I believe, depends the growth of the furniture business is more publicity. The demand for furniture today is hundreds of millions of dollars short of the real needs of the public. Sell the public ideas of greater home comforts. Through advertising this is possible."

There are 134 furniture factories on the Pacific Coast. Forty-five of them are in the bay district. Their output is $72,000,000 worth of furniture annually and they give employmentn to about 30,000 men. Practically all of their output is consumed in the territory west of Salt Lake City. We import about $100,000,000 worth of furniture from the East, $5,000,000 is stoves and ranges, $80,000,000 represents furniture of all types, including washing machines, vacuum cleaners, etc., and the balance floor coverings.

Attempted Jail Break Made By Burglar Suspect

MARTINEZ, Feb. 5.—A daring attempt to escape from the county jail was made at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by S. Ribis of Crockett, held on a charge of burglary when he bolted from the door of the jail and fled as Jailer Frank Larkin was returning Ribis and four other prisoners to their cells after having their photographs taken. Ribis was later caught as he was boarding a freight train in the local railroad yards.

Larkin was forced to lock up the four other prisoners before he could give the alarm and immediately ten officers, armed with shotguns and rifles started in pursuit of the fugitive.

After breaking away from the officers the prisoner ran to the hill east of town and from there worked his way to the tule land along the water front.

Tracing Ribi's moves, officers waited for him to emerge from his place of hiding.

At 7:30 o'clock he leaped from the tule marsh and jumped to a passing train. He was seen by Undersheriff W. M. Veale, who leveled a sawed-off shotgun on him and the fugitive gave up without further attempt to continue his flight.

Following his return to the county jail the prisoner told Jailer Larkin he planned another break at the first opportunity.

He was arrested in Crockett last Saturday on a burglary charge in connection with the looting of the J. H. Martin home there several days ago.

CURED OF DROPSY FIVE YEARS AGO—IN FINE HEALTH EVER SINCE

Merced, Calif., Jan. 22, 1924.

To Whom It May Concern—Five years ago I was suffering from a dropsical condition and my stomach was fearfully dilated by gas and water. I could neither lie down nor breathe with comfort; and many were the nights that I had to sit up to get my breath. Some of the physicians by whom I was treated thought that my trouble was due to the heart, but no matter what treatment they administered, I was neither relieved nor otherwise benefited.

Fortunately a friend of mine told me of the wonderful success of the FONG WAN HERBALIST. I took his herbs for only a FEW WEEKS, but was ENTIRELY CURED. This was five years ago, and I have had no ailment of any kind since.

I formerly lived at 417 48th St., Oakland, but am now living in Merced. I am sending this testimonial and my photograph to the FONG WAN HERB CO., to again express to them my happiness over my COMPLETE AND PERMANENT RECOVERY.

Many Delinquent In Paying For Christmas Seals

Mrs. Clara Wilson of the Richmond Health Center announces that many to whom Christmas seals were sent before the holidays have sent in neither the stamps or the money. The stamps were sent out to many citizens about Richmond. Those who received them were to either return the stamps to the headquarters or send 50 cents in payment of the same. In many cases people have neglected to do either.

The money thus collected is to be spent to keep in operation the fresh air camp for undernourished children which was conducted very successfully last ummer under the direction of the Boy Scouts at Diablo.
